

Early Years Teacher Status Degree Apprenticeship

Tackle the recruitment crisis and grow your own graduate talent

gre.ac.uk/apprenticeships/employers

UNIVERSITY OF GREENWICH

Become a partner with the University of Greenwich to develop the next generation of confident, innovative and inspiring leaders of early years practice and pedagogy.

What's in it for you and your staff:

- Fully funded BA (Hons) Early Years with Early Years Teacher Status (Level 6 in practice)
- Day release for university study plus 7 additional hours of study during the working week (flexible to meet the needs of staffing in the setting)
- Funding for settings: The government will provide £8,000 per apprentice to help you cover backfill, training and National Insurance costs.
- Free CPD in mentoring for supporting staff available
- Possible support in levy payments for small businesses
- Free branded EYTDA marketing on university platforms to support recruitment

How can I find out more?

For more information contact:

Louise Atkins

l.atkins@gre.ac.uk

Invest in the future of your early years workforce.

Faculty of Education, Health, and Human Sciences

Website: gre.ac.uk/ehhs

UNIVERSITY OF
GREENWICH